Suits of Joseph E. Caine and Max Junghandel Against Frank Hagenbarth Thrown Out of Court.

Judge Ritchie yesterday sustained demurrers to two complaints involving $190,000. Joseph E. Caine and Max Junghandel are the plaintiffs, and F. J. Hagenbarth is the defendant and winner in both instances.

The first suit was brought June 28 1907, and asked for $90,000. It was alleged that on Jan. 17, 1907, the plaintiffs entered into an agreement with the Ludwig Copper Mining company whereby in consideration of the payment of $5,000, and the further payment ment of $5,000, and the further payment of $995,000 within eight months, the company would deed to plaintiffs its property in the Mason district, Nevada.

The money was to be paid in four equal installments.

On Feb. 7, it was alleged, Caine and Junghandel entered into an agreement with Hagenbarth to sell their option for $200,000 and according to the case.

Their attorneys made a motion for separate trials and asked that they be set as early as possible. Judge Howeli granted the motion for separate trials and set Dec. 3 as the date for the trial of Walker, which is to precede that of Lawrence.
